Use of our WiFi Service

When you use the One Warwick Park's WI-FI service we may collect and process certain additional information.

What information we collect

- Registration and User-Provided Information: When you register to use our Wi-Fi, we may collect personal information about you. You may also provide us with personal information about you in various ways when you use the Wi-Fi, for example, when you send us customer service-related requests.
- Device Identifiers. In the course of providing the WiFi we may automatically collect a device identifier (such as your IP address, MAC Address or other unique identifier) for the computer, mobile device, technology or other device you use to access the Wi-Fi. A device identifier is a number that is automatically assigned to your device when you access the Wi-Fi, and we may identify your device by its device identifier. When you use the Wi-Fi, we may view your device identifier and use this information to enhance our service. We may associate your device identifier with other information about you.
- Other device information: We may also automatically record certain information from your device including, device type, the web pages, apps or sites that you visit, and the dates and times that you visit, access, or use the Wi-Fi While generally this information is anonymous and/or aggregated, this information may be associated with your stay with us, other information or persistent identifiers. This data helps us to manage our networks and provides us with information about the use of the Wi-Fi. We do not, however, collect and process the contents of email communications or other electronic communications you send or receive when using the Wi-Fi.

How we Use the Information we collect.

We use personal information only for the purposes described in this Policy, except if otherwise disclosed to you at the time the data is collected or further authorized by law or by you.

We use the personal information that we collect through the Wi-Fi to operate, maintain, enhance and provide all features of the service, to provide services and information that you request, to respond to comments and questions and to provide support to users.

We use the personal information that we collect through the Wi-Fi to understand and analyze the usage trends and preferences of our users, to improve the Wi-Fi service, and to develop new products, services, features, and functionality. If you provide your contact information we may send you personalized offers based on your web usage and location. You can opt-out of receiving these offers when signing in to use the Wi-Fi service or at any time using the 'unsubscribe' option. Please see 'What marketing activities do we carry out?' section below.

Marketing to young people

We won't send marketing emails, letters or make calls to people under the age of 13. We will not profile anyone under the age of 18.

Your rights

Under data protection law you have certain rights in relation to the personal information that we hold about you. You may exercise these rights at any time by contacting us using the details set out in the "How to Contact Us" section of this Privacy Policy.

Please note that in some cases we may not be able to comply with your request (e.g. we might not be able to delete your data) for reasons such as our own obligations to comply with other legal or regulatory requirements. However, we will always respond to any request you make and if we can't comply with your request, we will tell you why.

Your rights include:

The right to access your personal information

You have the right to access a copy of the personal information we hold about you and certain details of how we use it. There will not usually be a charge for dealing with these requests.

If you would like access to such information, please write to us at Data Protection Officer, 45 Westerham Road, Sevenoaks, Kent TN13 2QB. Alternatively, where you have made the request by electronic means, the information will be provided to you by electronic means where possible.

The right to rectification

We take reasonable steps to ensure that the personal information we hold about you is accurate and up to date. However, if you do not believe this is the case, you can ask us to update or amend it.

The right to erasure

In certain circumstances, you may ask us to erase your personal information.

The right to restriction of processing

In certain circumstances, you are entitled to ask us to stop using your personal information.

The right to data portability

In certain circumstances, you have the right to ask that we transfer any personal information that you have provided to us to another third party of your choice.

The right to object to marketing

You can ask us to stop sending you marketing messages at any time.

The right not to be subject to automated decision-making (including profiling)

You have a right not to be subject to a decision based solely on automated means. Please note that personal information including sensitive personal information may be used in the context of auto-renewal of certain types of policies which involves automated decision making to determine what the cost of renewing the policy will be. We will ask you when you purchase your policy if you would like to opt in to auto-renewal. However, even if you opted in at this point, you have the right to opt out at any point.

The right to withdraw consent

For certain uses of your personal information, we will ask for your consent. Where we do this, you have the right to withdraw your consent to further use of your personal information.

The right to lodge a complaint with the ICO

You have a right to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) if you believe that any use of your personal information by us is in breach of applicable data protection laws and regulations.

More information can be found on the ICO's website at: www.ico.org.uk/concerns. Making a complaint will not affect any other legal rights or remedies that you have.

How we protect your information

We will treat all of your information in strict confidence and we will endeavour to take all reasonable steps to keep your personal information secure once it has been transferred to our systems. We adopt appropriate data collection, storage and processing practices and security measures to protect against unauthorised access, alteration, disclosure or destruction of your personal information, and data stored on our IT systems, the website(s) and associated databases

Changes to our Privacy Policy

We keep our Privacy Policy under review and it is updated periodically. For example, those changes may be due to government regulation, new technologies, or other developments in data protection laws or privacy generally. You should check our website periodically to view the most up-to-date Privacy Policy.

This Privacy Policy was last updated on: 17th July 2018.
